Com Ardmagh
Inq. Trin. 1622

Survay of the manor or great proportion of Clancurry being 2000 acres of land lying wthin the barrony of Ffues and towlny of Ardmagh and belonging to Sr Archbald Acheson knight

The Bawne

Imprimis there is a stone Bawne of six score foote longe and fowre score foote wyde, and ten foote high, haveinge fowre flankers, three of them being fifteene foote high and fowre score foote wyde, conteyninge two rooms apeece being two storyes high, all three foote thicke in the wall,

Item upon the East syde of the said Bawne is buylt a stone howse of fowre score and ten foote longe, eighteen foote wyde, and eighteen foote high wthin the syde wall and thirtye eight foote high wthin the three gabletts, And haveinge a roome fflanker of twenty two foote high and ffowre score foote wyde, wherin the walls, all three foote thicke of wall staires, and conteyninge fowre stacks of burtle chimneys

Item the first storye of the said howse conteyneth a hall of 36 foote longe, a parlor of eighteene foote square, a vault wherin the parlor of fowreteene foote square being the grounde of the fflanker, and upon the other end of the hall, a pantry of ten foote longe and of the whole breadth of the howse being eighteene foote wyde.

Item the second storye conteyneth above the gate and pantrye, two Chambers, the one of twenty foote longe and the other of eighteene conteyninge three studyes, And above the parlor is another Chamber of eighteene foote square, and above the fflanker vault is another Chamber of fowreteene foote square.

Item the third storie conteyneth two Chambers and a gallery wherin the roofe.

Item the rest of the Bawne is buylt about with low thatched howses ouergisted, excepteinge ffourtye foote longe three score and ffourteen wonded castle to be joyned to the parlor afore said

Item without the gate is buylded a malt howse and kilne of stone two stories high, and three score and ten foote longe and twenty foote wyde, a water myll, barnes and other howses all thatched.

Armes wherin the said Bawne

Item in the manor howse, there is more fiftye two pykes, twenty five Corsemont staves, twelve muskette bandeleers five longe ffowlinge peeces, two paire of longe wheal worke pistolls, and two paire of shorte snapp worke pistolls, fowre boon tergolle sic bowes two halberts, two two handed swordes, twelve other swords, drum and Ensigne.